Mark 12:38-44

In the Gospel from Mark we are presented with the rich and powerful scribes, and the poor widow. The scribes do everything for their own glorification and gain. They seek places of honour and swallow up the property of widows. They have no need of God. They have made gods of themselves. They put money into the temple treasury, but it means nothing to them. They have plenty more money and wealth. The poor widow has nothing and yet from her nothingness she gives all she has to God. She knows and needs God in her life. She does not know where the next meal is going to come from! Jesus tells us, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on'.

What are today's readings telling us? They tell us that God so loved the world that He sent His only son to die on a cross, to be the perfect sacrifice for the forgiveness of our sins. This is a gift of perfect love. The Gospel also tells us that in order to accept this great gift of our forgiveness and salvation, we must be reliant on God and not ourselves. We cannot do anything to achieve our salvation; everything is a gift from God. We must have the faith, the trust, and humility of a poor widow before the mercy of the Cross. Reliance on ourselves or other gods of power or wealth will not get us into heaven.

NOVEMBER MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS: The November Dead List envelopes are now available at the back of the Church. Please place a list of the names of those deceased family members and friends you wish to be remembered during the month of November and give your envelope to Fr Patrick.

If your child has not been baptised, speak to Fr Patrick as soon as possible.

NEW CATHOLIC LECTIONARY: A new edition of the Lectionary, the book which contains the readings which are proclaimed at Mass, will come into use in England and Wales on the First Sunday of Advent 2024. It will use the English Standard Version – Catholic Edition for the scripture readings and the Psalms and Canticles for the Responsorial Psalms. The readings in the existing Sunday Missal will not match the new Lectionary. If you wish to order a new Sunday Missal, there is an order form at the back of the church. The paperback version is £11.00 and the hardback version is £21.00.

KNIGHTS OF SAINT COLUMBA: The next meeting is scheduled to take place on Tuesday 12th November in No 1 Church Road at 7.00pm. The meeting will commence with the Holy Mass. Any Catholic man is welcome to attend. Fr Patrick.
