LUKE 10:25-37: In today's Gospel from Luke, Jesus has a discussion with a Jewish Lawyer. The lawyer asks a legal question and gets the legal response from the Book of Deuteronomy. He is told that to inherit eternal life, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself'. The lawyer sought clarification by asking 'who is my neighbour'. Jesus gives us the parable of The Good Samaritan. A man was on his way from Jerusalem to Jericho. He was a faithful Jew returning from prayer in the Temple. He was attacked by brigands. He was left naked, injured, and dying at the side of the road. The priest and the Levite walked past the dying man. It was a Samaritan who showed compassion and love to his enemy. He cleaned and bandaged the man's wounds. He placed him on his own mount and carried to the Inn. He gave his money to the innkeeper to care for the man and promised to make good any deficit on his return. This is the true meaning of love.

I would like to give a further interpretation of the Parable. Jesus is the Samaritan who is travelling to Jerusalem to offer His life for the redemption of humanity. The injured traveller is humanity. The injured person is me and you. We are injured by sin and death. It is Jesus who bandages our wounds. It is Jesus who pours oil and wine on our broken souls. The healing oil and wine of mercy and love. It is Jesus who put us in the care of His Church on earth. It is Jesus that gives the Church the means of our healing: The Holy Sacraments. It is Jesus who makes good the deficit of our love for God and our neighbour through His perfect sacrifice on Calvary. It is Jesus who will return at the end of time in judgement and glory. It is Jesus who gives us a new commandment: 'To love one another as I have loved you'.
