MARK 10:17-30 In the Gospel from Mark, Jesus meets a good man who wants to hear the will of God, and complete the will of God in his life. He asks Jesus what must I do to inherit eternal life? He had complied with the Ten Commandments. He had come to Jesus to understand the will of God for his life. 'Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, "There is one thing you lack. Go sell everything you own and give the money to the poor and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me"'. This was not what he wanted to hear. 'He went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth'.

It is good to have a good job, to have a nice home and to be comfortably well off. Jesus warns us, however, that the acquisition of wealth can be a barrier to our salvation. The acquisition of wealth can prevent us from understanding and completing the will of God in our lives. If we devote our lives totally to our careers and to earning money – these become our gods. There is no room for God or for others in our lives. Excess wealth makes us feel safe and insulated from the worries of the world. We are in danger of feeling that we do not need God – we can do very nicely on our own. We forget that we came into this world naked and we will leave this world naked! We are following the wisdom of the world and rejecting the wisdom of God. We will only find true happiness and fulfilment when we are able to understand the will of God for our lives, and have the strength and graces to live the will of God. We cannot have the world and God – we have to choose one or the other! This is the cost of true discipleship of Jesus Christ.

Jesus told His disciples, "I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over".
