MARK 6:7-13: In today's Gospel from Mark, Jesus commissions the Twelve Apostles to go out and exercise His authority and Word to all they meet. What is the difference between a disciple and an apostle? A disciple is a pupil of a teacher. The disciple follows and listens to the teacher to develop their skills and knowledge. An apostle is an ambassador. The apostle is sent out to represent and act in the authority of another. The twelve closest followers of Jesus were promoted from being disciples of Jesus to be ambassadors of Jesus.

What were they commanded to do in the name of Jesus? They were firstly to preach repentance. The word used in the original Gospels was the Greek word 'metanoia'. This word does not mean simply feeling sorry for our sins. This word means a complete change in direction in our lives. The word means a complete turning of heart, mind and being towards God. It calls for the need to put God first and above everything else in our lives. It is a condition of our salvation that we exercise repentance in our relationship with God and others. We are all sinners and can only ever approach the Cross, the means of our salvation, on our knees. We can only repent in this life. It is not possible to repent after death. The most perfect way to experience the gift of repentance is to receive this gift in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

The Apostles were secondly commanded to cast out devils. There are many devils that can control our lives. The devils of selfishness, materialism, personal pleasure, self-importance, and power. Jesus through the gift of Himself in His Church and most especially His Sacraments provide us with the healing power to conquer the devils in our lives.
