JOHN 1:29-34

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist saw Jesus coming towards him and said, "Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sins of the world". Why did Jesus accept the Baptism of John?

Jesus entered the waters of the Jordan not to be washed of sins but to accept upon His shoulders the sins of the world. He accepted every sin from the beginning of time to the end of time. He accepted my sins and your sins. Jesus entered the waters of the Jordan not to be made holy but to make the water holy. Through the Baptism of the Holy Spirit, Jesus gave us the gift of the Sacrament of Baptism. He made us temples of the Holy Spirit and adopted sons and daughters of God. In the words of St Paul, 'When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in His death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with Him and joined Him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life'.

Jesus received the Baptism of John in submission of His Father's will to be the means of our salvation, and reconciliation with the Father. By allowing Himself to be baptised by John in the Jordan, Jesus accepted His personal baptism of blood in His crucifixion on Calvary. He became 'the lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world'.
