MATTHEW 25:14-30

The Gospel from Matthew is referred to as the 'Parable of the talents.' What is Jesus saying to us in this Gospel story? Here is an interpretation:

The Master is Jesus Christ. The servants are Christians. The Master has gone away for a long time but will return. Jesus ascended into Heaven following the resurrection but will return at the end of time. The word talent originally referred to a silver coin which was worth several thousand denarii. A denarius is payment for one day's labour. The talent is therefore something of great value. What has been given of great value to a Christian? The most precious thing given to a Christian is the gift of the Holy Spirit at Baptism. We are commissioned to use the gift of the Holy Spirit in our lives to build the Kingdom of God on earth. We are stewards of God's grace. We have other gifts of divine providence given to us in this life, including individual abilities, intelligence, good fortune, careers, money, and property. We need to remember that we own nothing in this life. Everything is a gift from God. We come into the world with nothing and leave this world with nothing except God's grace and our acts of love. Some people are given more than others in this life. The more we are given, the more that is expected from us. We are to use all our gifts for the building of the Kingdom of God.

Jesus Christ will return at the end of time and will demand an account of the gifts given to us. The message is clear we must be faithful servants and use our gifts for the building of the Kingdom of Heaven. We must put God and others before ourselves, using our many gifts wisely and fruitfully. We are not to be useless servants, barren trees, or lifeless vineyards.

5 FIRST SATURDAYS: In 1917, Our Lady of Fatima asked for the devotion of the 5 First Saturdays to avoid further World Wars. Hardly anyone took this seriously and the result was WW2. In our difficult world, we need to respond Our Mother's request. You need to attend Mass, receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and Holy Communion on the first Saturdays of 5 consecutive months. Complete 5 decades of the Rosary and spend 15 minutes meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary.
