Luke 21:25-28,64-36 In the Gospel from Luke, Jesus tells us that 'we will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory'. We are to 'stand erect; hold our heads high, because our liberation is near at hand'. Jesus was speaking of the Parousia: The Second Coming of Jesus Christ. Only at the Second Coming will the Kingdom of God be fully completed on earth. On His return in Glory, death and sin will be destroyed forever.

We may not be alive at the Second Coming, but we cannot avoid our personal judgement at the time of our own death. We should not fear judgement from Jesus Christ because He is both our Saviour and Judge. He endured the perfect sacrifice of the Cross in order that we may be forgiven our sins and granted eternal life.

This is the First Sunday in Advent. You will notice that I am wearing purple vestments. Purple is the sign of repentance. Today we light the first candle on the Advent wreath. The first Advent candle is known as the 'candle of hope'. Repentance is the hope in which we surrender our sinful lives to Christ' healing love. The hope that we have in a God that loves us.

Amidst the activity of Christmas preparations, let us not forget Our God who loves us. Let us respond to the invitation for repentance in preparation for our personal judgement. The Christmas Parish Reconciliation Service will take place on Monday 23rd December at 7.00pm in this church with visiting priests. There is no better way of responding to the call for repentance or to prepare for the celebrations of Christmas than the Sacrament of Reconciliation – to renew our relationship with Jesus Christ.
