Matthew 13:24-43

This week's Gospel follows on from 'The parable of the Sower last weekend. God is the Sower, and the seed is the Word of God. Jesus Christ is the Word of God incarnate. Jesus brings the message of love, mercy, and eternal life. This is the message of the Kingdom of God.

The message of the Kingdom of Man competes with the message of the Kingdom of God. The message of the Kingdom of Man is selfishness, pleasure in this life and acquisition of power and material wealth. We must choose which Kingdom we wish to belong to in this life and for eternity. Our God is a being of total love. He has paid a great price for our redemption. He wishes all humanity to be saved through the sacrifice of His Son. The price has been paid for our sins. God does not, however, impose the gift of His Son on us. He respects our freewill. God never judges us. We judge ourselves. God never excludes anybody from the gift of eternal life. We exclude ourselves.

The Gospel tells us that the separation of the darnel and the wheat will not take place until the harvest. God gives us every opportunity to turn to Him in repentance and to accept the gift of His love. This life is not a rehearsal. The decisions and choices of this life have eternal consequences. We can only repent and accept the Gift of God's love in this life. At the end of our lives, we each face our own judgement which is final. The most perfect place to seek repentance is in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.
