LUKE 1:26-38

In the Gospel from Luke, the Archangel Gabriel appears to Mary. He exhorts Mary to 'Rejoice, highly favoured! The Lord is with you'. Mary is deeply disturbed and is unable to understand this greeting. Mary is told not to be afraid, that she has won God's favour and is to bear a son who is to be called Jesus. The angel tells Mary that the child will be great and will be called Son of the Most-High. 'The Lord God will give Him the throne of His ancestor David; He will rule over the House of Jacob forever and His reign will have no end'.

Mary questioned the messenger and asked, 'how can this come about, since I am a virgin'? The angel replied that the Holy Spirit will come upon her, and the power of the Most-High will cover her with its shadow.' In an act of total faith in God, Mary consented to be the Mother of Jesus Christ with the words: 'let what you have said be done to me'. By this consent, Mary became the New Ark of the Covenant. She became the Mother of God – it is in her body that Jesus Christ is conceived and held in safety until birth. It is through Mary, that Jesus received His humanity.

Jesus is the promised Messiah from the line of David, but He is greater than any other descendant of King David. Jesus is the Son of God, in whose conception and birth, the Holy Spirit and the power of the Most High are at work. The entire salvation of humanity was dependent on the co-operation and consent of this simple girl. Mary did not understand the message fully; she was confused but was able to make a leap of faith and trust in God.

Mary is our teacher in faith. She is a wonderful example of trust in God for us all. Jesus received His humanity from Mary and, therefore, Mary is central to the entire salvation of humanity. Mary shows us that a human being can do God's will in their lives. She is our hope. She does it in a perfect way but in a very human way. Mary shows us how we can allow God to work in our lives. This is the essence of the teaching of the Gospel.
