Matthew 10:26-33

In today's Gospel from Matthew, Jesus tells the Apostles, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul; fear him rather who can destroy both body and soul in hell". He continues, "So if anyone declares himself for me in the presence of men, I will declare myself for him in the presence of my Father in heaven". Jesus was not speaking exclusively to His Apostles, He is also speaking to us here today.

In Baptism, we are freed from original sin; we become temples of the Holy Spirit; we become members of the Body of Christ; and we become adopted Sons and Daughters of God the Father. In Baptism, we entered the very life of the Blessed Trinity. The gift of our personal Baptism is the greatest gift from God. With this gift, we must remember that there also come great and grave responsibilities. We have the responsibility to practice and feed our faith, through regular reception of the Holy Sacraments, and most especially the Holy Eucharist at Sunday Mass. We have the responsibility to be active members of our parish community, and to contribute to the well-being of the parish. We also have the solemn responsibility to profess our Baptismal faith before all men and women.

The current culture in society tells us that religion is a private and personal matter. It is not considered acceptable for people to express their religious faith in public. It is something that one should keep to oneself. This Gospel reminds all of us that our faith is not a private matter. We are commissioned by Jesus Christ, through our Baptism to proclaim our faith to the world. There has never been a greater need for the world to hear the message of the Good News: 'Jesus Christ through His death and resurrection has won salvation for all who believe in Him'.

We are disciples of Jesus Christ and follow in His footsteps. Jesus faced abuse and rejection on earth. As the disciple is not greater than the master: we also must be prepared for mistreatment in professing our faith. We should never fear to speak of our faith to others. When we speak of our faith, we do not speak alone. Through the action of the Holy Spirit, Jesus Christ is present with us and will always guide us in what we should say. If we are faithful to Christ, He will always be faithful to us.

HOLY DAY OF OBLIGATION: Thursday 29th June is the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul. This is a Holy Day of Obligation. There will be a Vigil Mass on Wednesday 28th June at 7.00 pm and Mass at 9.00 am on Thursday 29th June 2023.
