MATTHEW 25:31-46

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. Jesus Christ is the Second Person of the Holy Trinity. He is God incarnate through the Virgin Mary. Jesus Christ is the Word through which the Cosmos and everything in it was created by God. He is the Lord and King of the universe. His throne is not, however, a seat of power but a cross of love.

In the Gospel from Matthew, we return to the theme of the shepherd separating the sheep from the goats. Jesus tells us in this Gospel that He will return at the end of time in glory to sit on His throne. Jesus will sit in judgment of all. We call this event the Parousia. We pray at each Mass for Christ to return at the end of time.

Each of us faces a personal judgment at the end of our lives. We are judged on two commandments: the love of God and the love of our neighbour. We are judged on love. To enter heaven is to enter the life of the Holy Trinity. God the Father, God the Holy Spirit and God the Son is a community of total and utter love. Three persons in one being. This is a perfect love for the other and not a self-seeking love. We are not able to enter into communion with God unless we are people of love. Heaven does not have a place for the selfish, the self-centered or mean-natured person. To be in communion with God is to be in communion with a Being of total consuming love. If we cannot love, we cannot be in relationship with God.

God shows us the meaning of love. He sent His Only Son into the world to die on a Cross for our sins, in order that we may be reconciled to God. He, therefore, demands that we also show love to each other, in particular, those disadvantaged in society: the sick, the poor, the lonely, and the dispossessed, in our communities. For those welcomed into the kingdom of heaven, Jesus says: 'For I was hungry, and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave me drink; I was a stranger and you made me welcome; naked and you clothed me; sick and you visited me; in prison and you came to see me'. To those denied entry to heaven, Jesus says: I tell you solemnly, in so far as you neglected to do this to one of the least of these, you neglected to do it to me'.
