MARK 1:21-28

In the Gospel from Mark, we are told that Jesus taught with authority and that His teaching was new. Jesus is not a prophet. Jesus was not a scribe who gave interpretations of Scripture. Jesus Christ is God. Jesus spoke with the full authority of God Himself. The unclean spirit recognized who Jesus was when it asked: 'what do you want from us, Jesus of Nazareth'? The unclean spirit declared 'I know who you are: The Holy One of God'.

The people proclaimed that, 'Here is a teaching that is new'. Jesus Christ is the fulfilment of the Law and the Old Testament. The New Covenant is the Good News of Jesus Christ. Jesus is God incarnated into humanity through the Holy Spirit, and the Virgin Mary. Jesus was born and died for the forgiveness of our sins on Calvary. He rose from the dead on the third day and ascended into heaven. Jesus has freed us from sin and death. All who believe in Jesus are promised eternal life. This is the new teaching – the New Covenant.

At Mass, we listen to the Word in the Holy Scriptures, and we receive the Word, in the Holy Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ.
