JOHN 6:24-35 In the Gospel from John, the crowd had chased Jesus after the miracle of the feeding of the 5000. Jesus tells the crowd trying to make him their king: 'do not work for food that cannot last, but work for food that endures to eternal life, the kind of food the Son of Man is offering you, for on Him the Father, God himself, has set His seal'. He tells them: 'this is working for God: you must believe in the one He has sent'. They asked for a sign to believe in Jesus Christ. They said, 'our fathers had manna to eat in the desert; as scripture says: he gave them bread from heaven to eat'.

Jesus answered, 'I tell you most solemnly, it was not Moses who gave you bread from heaven, it is my Father who gives you the bread from heaven, the true bread, for the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world'. The crowd asked Jesus, 'give us that bread always'. Jesus tells them, 'I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be hungry; he who believes in me will never thirst'.

Jesus Christ through His death and resurrection has redeemed the world and has granted us forgiveness for our sins. Jesus Christ is the true bread from heaven, He who gives life to the world. To receive this life, we must seek and believe in the person of Jesus Christ: we must have faith! In the Holy Mass, we complete the memorial of the Lord's Passion and Resurrection. The sacrifice of Christ and the sacrifice of the Eucharist are one single sacrifice. In the Eucharist, Christ gives us the very body which is given-up for us on the cross; He gives the very blood which he poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. The Jews were sent manna from heaven in the desert to sustain their bodies in their journey to the Promised Land. Jesus gives us the Holy Eucharist to feed our souls and leads us to eternal life in Heaven.
