Matthew 17:1-9

In the Gospel from Matthew, we are given a description of the Transfiguration. Jesus had taken Peter, John, and James up into the mountain to pray. In the Old Testament, the mountain is the place where all the prophets had met God. Jesus had taken the apostles on this journey to prepare them for the trauma of His passion and crucifixion. They still did not fully appreciate at this stage that Jesus is God. As Jesus prayed, He was transfigured: 'the aspect of His face was changed, and His clothing became as brilliant as lighting.' The apostles were given a vision of the Resurrected Christ. Moses and Elijah spoke of Jesus passing, which He was to accomplish in Jerusalem. This was in direct reference to Jesus' death on a cross. A cloud came and covered them with a shadow. This was the same cloud that appeared at the Covenant between Yahweh and Abraham. This was the presence of God the Father. The voice came from the cloud saying "This is my Son, the Chosen One. Listen to Him".

We are commanded to listen to Him. If we open our hearts, minds, and souls to the Word of Jesus Christ, we will share in His resurrection. His resurrection becomes our resurrection. This is the gift with have been given in our Baptism. In the Holy Mass, we are fed by the Word of God, and we are fed by the Holy Eucharist. The Mass is a taste of eternity. The eternity we will share with Our Lord Jesus Christ.
