MATTHEW 21:33-43

The Gospel from Matthew, Jesus was addressing the Chief Priests and Pharisees, in response to their demand that He explained from what source He obtained His authority. In the parable, the landowner is God. The vineyard is 'the house of Israel'. The tenants are the Chief Priests and Pharisees. It was their job to care and look after God's people. The servants are the prophets sent by God as His messengers to His people. The produce of the vineyard is the good works demanded by God – to do the will of God in their lives. The landowner's son is Jesus Christ; sent by the Father to announce the Kingdom of God. The landowner's son is seized by the tenants and killed outside the walls of the vineyard. The Chief Priests and Pharisees would seize Jesus and have Him crucified outside the walls of Jerusalem. Jesus is the stone rejected by the builders that through His death and resurrection would become the keystone of our salvation.

What does this parable mean to us today? We are the new tenants of God's vineyard – the Kingdom of God. He has given us His Only Son who died on a cross for our sins. He has given us freedom from sin and death. In response to God, we must bear fruit in our lives. Fruit that will build up the Kingdom of God on earth. We produce fruit in our lives by seeking the will of God in our lives. Each of us has a unique and crucial task in the completion of the Kingdom of God on earth. We each have a part to play in God's plan of salvation for humanity. How do we understand God's will? How do we obtain the strength to complete the will of God?

We discover the will of God through prayer and reading Holy Scriptures. We obtain the graces to complete His will, through acts of love and kindness; through the reception of the Sacraments, and most especially through the Holy Eucharist: The Body and Blood of Our Lord Jesus Christ.
